

ONE OCEAN

Report Launch and Discussion

The report discusses the role of the oceans in New Zealand's culture, economy and natural environment. It explores possible solutions to the challenges currently facing the management of human activities in our marine space, and it recommends pragmatic steps towards the wise use and conservation of our seas.

Speakers include

Bronwen Golder

Director of the Kermadec Initiative, The Pew Charitable Trusts

Sam Judd

Co-founder and CEO, Sustainable Coastlines

Professor Timothy Naish

Director of the Antarctic Research Centre, Victoria University of Wellington

Wendy McGuinness

Chief Executive, McGuinness Institute

Tuesday, 12 May 2015, 5.30–7pm

(guests welcome from 5pm)

Nibbles and refreshments provided

Join us at the Willis Bond & Co office

Level 4, 12 Viaduct Harbour Avenue, Auckland

RSVP to Kirstie at 12May@mcguinnessinstitute.org

MCGUINNESS INSTITUTE

Photo by Cuba Gallery